

Early 2014 Clamshell Quilt Guild Challenge

Challenge start date: January 2014

Challenge submission / reveal date: June 2014

Theme:

“Quilted Travel Posters”

Prizes:

1st, 2nd, and 3rd place prizes will be awarded.

All entries will be judged by the attendees at the June 2014 membership meeting.

Rules (are really quite simple and designed to give you plenty of creative flexibility!!):

1. Submission cannot be a previously completed project – this is a new project for 2014.
2. Maximum allowable size is 36 inches on the longest side.
3. Travel poster must include fabric and be quilted / finished (no unfinished tops allowed)
4. How the “travel poster” is finished is up to you...quilted and bound, quilted and framed, quilted and put over stretcher bars, etc.
5. Machine sewn, hand work, raw edge, needle turn, or fusible appliqué are all acceptable
6. Design may be:
 - a. An imaginary “travel poster” of a place in your imagination!
 - b. A real place you’ve never been but hope to see someday!
 - c. A documentary of a place you’ve traveled to and would like to represent in fabric!
 - d. An original fabric interpretation of a travel poster you’ve admired
 - e. The possibilities are endless...A to Z... African or Asian fabrics, State flowers, State blocks, State star blocks, travel photos to fabric, country & state flags, , Australian fabrics, Bali’s, Zoo fabrics...etc. Have fun with it!!!!
7. Please do not violate any copyright laws.
8. An entry form must accompany all entries (see below). You must be a member to participate.
9. Your name cannot appear on the front of the quilt (to ensure judging is fair and unbiased).

Cut here -----Cut here

Entry form:

Your Name: _____

Title of your entry: _____

Size: _____

Inspiration / Location: _____

Any notes you would like included with your viewed entry regarding the location / story should be on an index card pinned to the front right lower corner of the travel poster – WITHOUT YOUR NAME!!

Questions and submissions to Jane CP-D jmpcd@sbcglobal.net